

Casa Alta Royal Lodge

Special offer ~ For stays of three days or more, get one night free!

Located in Ourém (near Fátima) Portugal about 130 km NNE of Lisbon
Centro region, in Medio Tejo in the district of Santarém.

A getaway to one of Portugal's most prestigious, small manor houses.

Casa Alta Royal Lodge, located within the ramparts of the medieval Castle of Ourém, is a former royal lodge of the Braganza Royal House. Centrally located within the country, your stay can include chauffeured transportation (optional extra) to the nearby must-see famous sites of Royal Monasteries in Batalha and Alcobaça, the last Templar Castle in Tomar, the Fatima Shrine, Roman excavations, the medieval university town of Coimbra, beaches, and the last royal hunting lodge in the Bussaco Forest.

This limited time package includes min. four nights, in the Braganza Suite for two, with a private bath, luxury towels and soaps. The suite has a draped bed, embroidered sheets, down pillows and duvet, wood-burning fireplace, antiques, fresh flowers, and spectacular views of the Ourém valley below, shared by the garden terrace, pool terrace and tower seating. Other amenities include a private chapel and library. Optional extra: transportation from the Lisbon Airport and back.

A full English-style breakfast begins your day with personalized sightseeing trips created with your interests in mind, or if you wish, you may just want to unwind by the pool. Optional extra: American, European, and Portuguese cuisine is offered, or special menus at your request, served in the garden or in the salon with candlelight, gleaming silver, and linen napery.

Special Offer!

For stays of three days or more, get one night free!

For information and photos, please see www.ourem.cc
For questions, availability and reservations and email us at casa.alta@gmail.com or telephone us at (+351) 249-543-515 or Skype: jgmarians